This is a 2 weeks tour tailor made for Vinc Ong who had 1150+ species in his China list before the tour, on this Sichuan tour he only had 20+ targets, so we just focused on his targets during the tour, didn't aim to see as many species as possible.

Summer Wong Bird Tours

May 15, Arrived at Gonggangling forest before sunrise looking for Sichuan Wood Owl, then headed to Ruoergai, birding in flower lake area. Had dinner at Ruoergai town, after sunset we went to Baxi forest tried to look for Boreal Owl, but after 2 hours searching we didn't hear anything, so we back to town, night in Ruoergai.

May 16, Morning birding in Baxi forest, got Blue-eared Pheasant, Chinese Grouse, Snowy-cheeked Laughingthrush, Przevalski's Nuthatch, Spectacled Parrotbill, Chinese Fulvetta etc, then headed to Chuanzhusi, attempting to look for Boreal Owl at night, spent two hours there, but no response, instead, a Sichuan Wood Owl was attracted by the tape and came in, night in Chuanzhusi.

May 17, Whole day birding in northern Sichuan, night in Pingwu.

May 18, We tried to look for Rufous-headed Robin, but didn't even hear it, probably it's too early, the robin didn't arrive yet, so we decided to try again after Tangjiahe, night in Tangjiahe.

May 19, Whole day birding in Tangjiahe, tried the parrotbill trail for Przevalski's Parrotbill, got one on the trail, tried to photograph it but it moved too fast in the bamboos, on the way back to hotel, got male and female Golden Pheasant, night in Tangjiahe.

May 20, After an easy morning in Tangjiahe then we headed to northern Sichuan, night in Pingwu.

May 21, We tried to look for Rufous-headed Robin again, but we were told not allowed to go that area by the nature reserve people, so we had to give up, just birding nearby, got Baikal Bush Warbler, Chinese Song Thrush and Eurasian Three-toed Woodpecker, night in Pingwu.

May 22, Local people told us a trail in the mountain so we tried in the morning but didn't see much until on the way back got a small group of Chinese Babax near the village area, then we headed to Jiangyou, night in Jiangyou.

May 23, Morning birding in Jiangyou for Swinhoe's / Brown-rumped Minivet, back to Chengdu.
